Numb 4172

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday September 16. to Monday September 20. 1708.

Windsor, September 17.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the Queen, congratulating Her Majeſty on the Glorious Victory obtain'd over the French near Audenarde, by the Forces of Her Majeſty and Her Allies, commanded by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, the Right Honourable the Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Northampton; preſented to Her Majeſty by Francis Arundel, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common-Council aſſembled; preſented to Her Majeſty by Robert Eyre, Eſq; their Recorder.

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtables and Inhabitants of the Borough of Great Marlow, in the County of Bucks, together with their Repreſentatives in Parliament; preſented to Her Majeſty by James Chaſe, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Bridgwater, Lord-Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Genoa, September 2. N. S. This State is raiſing new Levies with all poſſible Expedition, and has already above 5000 in Arms. Letters from Rome ſay, that the Marquis de Prie, Plenipotentiary from his Imperial Majeſty, is ſuddenly expected there; and it is thought, upon the Arrival of that Miniſter, ſome Advances will be made towards an Accommodation between the Courts of Vienna and Rome. In the mean time, the Pope has reviewed his Troops; and, after having given them his Benediction, appear'd at the Head of them on Horſe-back, and declared that he would take the Field with them as their Generaliſſimo.

Vienna, September 12. N. S. Two Days ago arrived here Prince Emanuel of Soiſſons, with the News of the taking of Feneſtrelles. He left the Duke of Savoy's Camp at Balbotet the laſt Day of Auguſt. We have Advice from Tranſilvania, by Letters of the 22d of the laſt Month, that General Kriechbaum, having received Intelligence of Count Caroli's being poſted between Clauſenburg and Bonzida with a Body of 9000 Malecontents, had ſent 2000 German Horſe againſt him; but upon the Approach of the Germans, the Malecontents retired into the Neighbouring Mountains, and in their Paſſage plunder'd 2 Towns, Millenbach and Saſvaros. In the firſt there was a Guard of 40 Germans with a Lieutenant; and in the ſecond an Enſign with 20 Men. Altho' the Emperor be Maſter of all the ſtrong Towns in Tranſilvania, yet that Country is at preſent very much infeſted by the Malecontent Parties, which divide themſelves into ſmaller and greater Bodies, from 20 to 2 or 300, and in that manner overrun the Country, pillaging and deſtroying where-ever they come; and as ſoon as they are purſued by the Imperial Troops, take ſhelter in the Mountains. Count Anthony Eſterhaſi has rejected the Offers made him by Marſhal Heiſter. But Bezeredi, with ſeveral of his Under-Officers, having ſhewed a Diſpoſition to embrace the Emperor's Pardon, one of the Officers, who was privy to his Deſign, divulged it to the common Soldiers, and putting himſelf at the head of 500 Men, marched into Ghimiz, and carried off Bezeredi, with the other Officers who intended to ſubmit to the Emperor. Marſhal Heiſter being informed of what had paſſed, ſent immediately a Detachment in purſuit of the Malecontents, which, it is ſaid, overtook them at Keskemet, ſet Bezeredi with his Fellow-Priſoners at liberty, and put moſt of the five hundred Hungarians to the Sword. Count Zintzendorf is ſet out for Poland, with the Character of Envoy-Extraordinary from this Court to King Staniſlaus; he has Credentials for the Character of Ambaſſador, in caſe of a Diet of Pacification. He goes by the way of Breſlaw, and carries with him the Reſolutions of this Court, touching the Points ſtill in debate about the Execution of the Treaty of Alt-Ranſtadt.

Journal from the Camp before Liſle.

September 20. N. S. The Trenches were reliev'd by Lieutenant-General d'Arnan, and Major-General Sohle, with 5 Battalions on the Right, and 7 on the Left. The Night was for the moſt part employ'd in enlarging the Saps, both on the Right and Left, and in advancing the Gallery towards the Horn-work of the Right, part of which was burnt by the Enemy. Three Mines were finiſh'd on the Right before the grand Breach, and a Gallery compleated towards the Counterguard of the Right. Two Mines were likewiſe ready to ſpring on the Left; but the Gallery towards the Counterguard of the Left could not be quite finiſh'd. The 21ſt the Trenches were reliev'd by Lieutenant-General Wilke, Major-General Sacken, and Sir Richard Temple Brigadier, with 5 Battalions on the Right, and 7 on the Left. The Diſpoſition being made for the attacking the Outworks between 6 and 7 in the Evening, the Signal was given by a general diſcharge from the Batteries, both of Cannon and Mortars; the Mines both on the Right and Left were immediately ſprung with good Succeſs, the Granadiers thereupon mounting the Breach of the Counterguard on the Right, oblig'd the Enemy to retire into the Retrenchment of that Work, and made a very good Lodgment on the Breach. Our Men likewiſe beat out the Enemy, and made two Lodgments on the Counterſcarp before the Grand Breach; but a great Number of freſh Troops coming out upon them, and the Officer who commanded the Troops appointed to ſuſtain our Men being kill'd, they were oblig'd to quit thoſe two Lodgments. The Attack of the Counterſcarp of the Counterguard on the Left ſucceeded as well as could be deſired, and our Men continued in their Lodgment there without any Diſturbance. During theſe Actions the Prince of Savoy receiv'd a Wound from a ſmall Shot in the Forehead, which has ſince been laid open, and his Highneſs is in no manner of Danger. The 22d the Trenches were relieved by Lieutenant-General Spar, Major-General Sohle, and Brigadier du Troſſel, with 5 Battalions on the Right, and 7 on the Left. The chief Work of this Night was to enlarge our Lodgment on the Counterguard, to advance the Gallery of the Horn-work on the Right, and to the Counterguard on the Left; as alſo to carry on and enlarge the Saps on the Right and Left, in order to another Attack, for which 400 Granadiers were ordered from the Camp commanded by his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, to join the Troops of the Siege appointed for that Service. Our Loſs this Night was very inconſiderable.

From the Camp at Lannoy, Sept. 24. N. S. On Friday the 21ſt, Brigadier Landsberg was ordered to march with 6 Battalions of Foot, and 8 Squadrons of Horſe, and encamp near Courtray, whither 11 Squadrons more were ordered at the ſame time from Audenarde, and 5 more have been ſent thither ſince. The Prince of Savoy is in ſo fair a way of Recovery of the Wound he received in his Forehead on Friday Night laſt, that 'tis hoped he may be abroad again in a day or two. During his being oblig'd to ſtay at home, his Grace the Duke of Marlborough has been every day at the Siege, and was laſt Night in the

Trenches